When rupture is unavoidable...

- Am I looking for who's right and who's wrong?
- Can I name frankly my feelings?
- Is the good of the work my priority?
- How do I discern what is essential?
- How do I cultivate faith, courage and trust in God?
- How do I remember the past?
- How do I make myself indifferent and listen to the desires of the group, of the community?
- How do I value the qualities of others?

When the points of view are different

- How do I trust in community discernment in making this decision?
- What do I do so that I don’t break up relationships forever?
- How do I clarify my thoughts to avoid misunderstandings?
- Do I know how to be prudent and follow the steps?
- How do I take into account the role of each one and the link with the Church?

Some questions to help you stay on course for communion in times of crisis

In the case of mild troubles

- How do I practice not focusing only on human feelings?
What are the images that represent communion for you?

Some images of communion according to Saint Marie

- The tree and its branches
- The garden
- The hive
- The body and its members